LEAGUE PROGRAM IN LEAGUE PAPER

Anti-Saloon Organ Put Talley Down as Speaker Without Asking Him to Speak.

Talley Put Down as Speaker When He Hadn't Agreed to Speak.

Anti-Saloon League to make it appear that The Times-Dispatch had printed on unauthorized program of the meeting to be held next week in Newport paper to state that it got its copy from an official organ of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia. The proof is sub-mitted herewith in the form of a facsimile page from the publication in question. In that program it was put down that Robert H. Talley, of Richmond, would speak on "A Word From Licensed Cities—Richmond," Mr. Talley, who is Assistant United States District Rev. J. D. McAllster, of the League, corroborated him. It seems that some persons called at Mr. Talley's office some weeks ago without seeing him and left a message about some speech which Mr. Talley never understood.

STUDENT OF ART But after the publication of the pro-gram in The Times-Dispatch yesterday morning, Mr. Talley was invited by Mr. McAlister to speak on the topic advertised. He declined.

Edited by McAlister.

The program as printed yesterday morning was copied from The American Issue—Virginia edition in fact and an organ of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League. That paper, as the accompanying photograph shows, car-ries the names of Rev J. D. McAlister as Virginia editor. That being the case, and in view of the further fact that the paper was dated February 11, 1911, naturally gave anybody to understand that the official organ of the league, edited by Mr. McAlister, would not be guilty of faking. So while Mr. McAlister notified the afternoon papers that The Times-Dispatch had printed an unauthorized copy of the program.

There are some since last Monday afternoon. Wolfe is thirty-five years old. He is credited with being a man of good habits and temperament, and his friends can advance no theory as without leaving even an indication as to his destination. that The Times-Dispatch had printed an unauthorized copy of the program and neglected to state that The Times. On the editorial page of the American Issue, there is a line stating that the branch office is located at 28 North Ninth Street, Richmond. Nobody at that address ever heard of the paper. It has no branch office there.

An afternoon paper, of which the superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League is one of the editors, stated yesterday that the tentative program made up about three weeks ago was printed by that paper at the time, and that "it has just been reprinted by some other papers without indicating changes made in the meantime."

act having been committed. Suicide is scouted by those who know Wolfe well.

The first information made public that Wolfe was missing came to-day from Frederic Crowninshield, director of the academy, who requested the police to prosecute a search for the student. This was begun immediately, but at a late hour to-night it had been without result.

Last Monday morning two of Wolfe's colleagues at the academy, Frank Fairbanks, a painter from Boston, and Albin Polasek, a sculptor, from Philidelphia, saw him in his studio. Afterwards he went to the Vatican Museum, returning to the academy for luncheon. changes made in the meantime."

thousands, much advanced legislation secured and a sentiment created that will not rest until the Aquor: curse has been driven from the Old Dominion. The saloonists and their newspaper allies have good reason to hate and fear Dr. Cannon, and would naturally re-joice at his expatriation from Virginia. That will be short-lived, howover. Dr. Cannon is not going to leave the state of Virginia. He is not going to quit the fight against the saloon. He is not going to sever. his connection with the Anti-Saloon League. Another man will ac selected as superintendent of the League who will be able to give all his time and energy to the prosecution of the League work but Dr. Cannon will be in Virginia, and will be associated with the League. He will be in the fight, and the salson people might just as well recognize that they must in the future reckon with every force of righteousness that has shit them, and with other forces that are gathering to the conflict.

No! seloon friends (?), Dr. Cannon is not "clear gone forever," rather there are others coming. There is much harden sledding ahead for you than you have yet experienced. The fight is on to a finish.

broken our ranks and made fools of us. If there is one thing that temperance people need today more than anything else, it is to discriminate between the real good and the genuine bad, and to cling tenaciously to the institution which has struck terror to the hearts of the drunkard-makers of this state.

The Baltimore Banquet

The Fasmville Herald seems to have sized up the situation at the Democratic love feast at Baltimore, saying: "At the Baltimore banquet all 'pent up' eloquence remained uncorked, but not so with the champagne." Quite so. This is the full story of that event .- Times

Yes, the press has finally leaked enough to cause the public to more than suspect that there were enough "leading Democrats" present too boozy and boisterous to permit cortain orators to be heard. Perhaps some day we will learn if the condition of the audience proved a relief to the speakers.

In his purpose to "tave the Democratic party from delirium tremens," Win. Jennings Bryan has a mission-to the leaders.

Yet, from experience, we agree with the above named gentleman that a man does not have to stagger to be a Democrat."

SEVENTEEN LIVES

His Cash.

Chicago, Ill., February 16.—"Even a thief isn't safe in Chicago," is the plea Charles Willard made to the police yesterday when he confessed that he, in conspiracy with two employes, held up Rector's restaurant last Sunday morning and stole $2.500. Its said and the conspiracy had made his possession of the money brief, for, as he was leaving the cafe he was greeted by three men, who with a revolver pressed against his side, forced him into an alley and robbed him. Willard seys he confided to an outsider that he was a victim of a conspiracy devised by this friend and two other men.

The story, incredible as it first seemed to the police, was corroborated by them. They recovered $500 and arrested William Loftus, a salsonkeeper, and charged him with being an accessory to the robbery and with a condition. Kansas City. Mo., February 10.—
Antonio de P. Araujo, Mexican editor and revolutionist, released from the Federal penifentiary at Leavenworth yesterday, said while in Kansas City last night he would start for Mexico to-day to aid the revolutionists. He was convicted, after a protest of the Mexican government, of conspiring against a friendly foreign state.

Araujo, who before his arrest edited a paper at San Antonio, Texas, declared the Liberal party, headed by Richardo Flores Magon, now in exile and a resident of Los Angeles, and the Madero party have reached an agreement for the purpose of making war on President Diaz.
